IPBoost! from Baldwins Intellectual Property

Got an idea? Making a product? Building a reputation?

Baldwins invite you to "pick the brains" of some of the most highly trained and accessible IP professionals in New Zealand with a free half hour appointment with no obligation to take further action.

The baldwins team are available to discuss intellectual property issues – such as do you have IP, who owns it, what you can do with it, or how do you stop someone else from using it. Real insights with no strings attached.

This offer is part of Baldwins commitment to New Zealand innovators.

To get your IPBoost! email: ipboost@baldwins.com

Family tradition turned business opportunity

Limoncello is a unique Italian liqueur that some say has been enjoyed since Roman Times. Italian restaurateur, Corrado Ronchetti, a native of Italy's ruggedly beautiful Amalfi Coast and his Kiwi wife Annemarie Tiffen, are now making their own limoncello on the Kapiti Coast.

Growing your business through R&D

The Government has committed an extra $234 million over four years to support businesses to do R&D. This means there is a total of $75 million for 2010/11 through the Foundation TechNZ business programme.

Come along and hear first hand from a company who has used R&D to grow their business and find out about the new and existing funding for business R&D.
